Letter of Agreement

Thank you for selecting FIS as the school for your child’s education.

The nationalities of students enrolled at FIS represent over 20 countries. This is truly an international community with emphasis on cultural diversity and seeking unity through learning together. English is the language of instruction in all classes except Japanese and French.

By signing below you agree to allow the school to settle emergency and discipline situations according to the procedure in the Parent/Student Handbook.

Your understanding and cooperation are greatly appreciated.

Parent Name (please print): _____

I agree to abide by the values and decisions of the school in regard to emergency and disciplinary procedures. I know that the school will give me every chance to express myself and will do its best to accommodate my wishes but understand the school officials have the final authority in educational decisions.
